OUTBREAK OVER COAL FAMINE.

Trouble in the Tenement District of New York -Rellet Coal Yard.

New York (Special).-The first out break due to the coal famine occurred nere Sunday. A great horde of men, women and children gathered at the relief depot in Delancey street. Angered at finding the coalyard closed, they started to force the doors.

That the outbreak was not more serions was due to the good judgment of Joseph Cohen, proprietor of the yard, and the action of policemen from the Eldredge Street Station. Cohen calmed the excited mob by promising that each should get at least one pail of coal. The policemen instead of clubbing, as at the Rabbi Joseph funeral, pleaded with the people for order, and peace was restored. For about 10 minutes, however, is looked as if there would be a serious outbreak.

No. 56 Delancey street is one of the yards selected by the coal operators from which to sell to the poor at the rate of 15 cents a pail. Tenements abound on every side, with 20 families or about a hundred persons, to each

The outbreak was in the morning Several women in search of coal had wandered from one street to another pleading for a pail of coal for 25 cents but none was to be had at that price as the regular price was 45 cents.

When the girl employes of the plant left the building they were charged by the crowd outside, and in the struggle Mary Hillman and Edith Marsh, who had refused to quit work, were thrown to the ground, trampled on and severely Rose, Anne and Marelin Zitte, sisters, were arrested on charges of being leaders of the riot. They were taken to a police station and the injured girls were sent to their homes in cariages.

An X-ray machine was used on Buettner, which, the surgeons declare, showed the teeth to be in the oesophagus. Just as the latter had been opened its entire length a relative of Buettner rushed into the operating room with the missing set of teeth, which had been found in Buettner's It was then learned that Buettner was suffering from a severe case of acute laryngitis. The pain in his throat led him to believe he had swallowed the teeth

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

Generel Trade Conditions.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Distribution of merchandise shows no diminution, and prospects are bright for continued activity. Dealers in many lines are wigent for prompt shipments, calling upon jobbers and manufacturers for goods already overdue. This indication of reduced stocks is a good sign, and tends to sustain quotations. Western reports are especially favorable, and the early marketing of cotton has brought distinct improvement at the South. Voluntary advances in wages have been announced in a num ber of instances, while the labor situa tion is more satisfactory, although not entirely free from controversy.

Supplies of cotton goods do not accumulate in first hands, the demand continuing to keep pace with production, which holds prices steady. Few export sales are reported, not through any lack of inquiry, but owing to the fact that sellers will make no concessions. Wool averaged slightly higher in sympathy with the London sales, but further declines occurred in hides and ieather has become dull. New England shoe shops have received large orders for winter goods, assuring activity for two or three months at some factories. Strictly commercial failures in the Inited States during the first nine months of 1902 numbered 8676, with defaulted liabilities of $85,407,490. Last year there were 8083 failures for $80,-560,852. In addition, there were 47 failures of banks and other financial in stitutions with liabilities of $28,027,198, against 61 in 1901, involving $17,295,554. While the exhibit is less satisfactory than last year's, only one other year during the past two decades made as 'avorable a showing.

Bradstreet's report says: Business ailures in the United States for the week ending October 2 number 164, as tgainst 172 last week, 175 in this week ast year, 177 in 1900, 146 in 1899 and 63 in 1898. Canadian failures not

THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

International Lesson Comments For October 19.

Subject: The Fall of Jericho, Josh. vi., 3, 20 -Golden Text: Heb. xi., 39-Memory Verse, 20 - Commentary on the Day's Lesson.

8. "When Joshua had spoken." When he had given them directions as God had commanded him, as to how they should proceed to take the city of Jericho. The escape of the spies, whom Joshua had sent to learn the condition of the city, had aroused the king of Jericho so that he took extra care to have the gates of the city well secured against any further intrusion from the Israelites. "The seven trumpets." These instruments were probably made of horn, and were the same as used on the horn, and were the same as used on the jubilee. "Before the Lord." Before the ark, called the ark of the covenant, for it contained the tables on which the cove-nant was inscribed. "Blew." Instead of the dreadful trumpet of war, they sounded the trumpet of joy, as already conquerors, acting faith in the promise of God. "The ark—followed them." This was a symbol of God's presence, and showed that all the victories of Israel were from Him. By the victories of Israel were from Him. By this token the faith and patience of the people were increased. The priests went ahead that they might give the notice of their coming, and lead the way for the great company which followed.

9. "The armed men went before." The soldiers took the lead to clear the way of obstructions. "The rearward." The whole company of Israel followed in the line of march. The order of the procession seems company of Israel followed in the line of march. The order of the procession seems to have been, 1. The soldiers. 2. The seven priests, blowing continually on large horns. 3. The ark. 4. The main body of Israel. The procession probably kept at a safe distance from the walls, so that no weapons or missiles could reach them.

10. "Ye shall not shout." Ine procession was made in deep and solemn silence, exactly as Joshua directed, without acclamation or noise of any kind. It seems a was made in deep and solemn shence, exactly as Joshua directed, without acclamation or noise of any kind. It seems a strange manner for battle. No mount was raised, no sword drawn, no engine planted, no pioneers undermining. It was by striking terror to their feelings that Jericho was to be taken and subdued. There were armed men in this approaching army, but no stroke given. They must walk and not fight. No doubt the people were astonished at first sight, but when they failed to receive any hurt at first, they most likely made fun of the spectacle. "Until the day I bid you." Their victory would come by perfect obedience to every command.

12. "Rose early." To begin the march.
They began early because they were intent on gaining the victory. Every day was equally important that the victory might be obtained.

14. "So they did six days." Though

be obtained.

14. "So they did six days." Though lately come into Canaan, and their time very precious, yet they must linger so many days about Jericho, seeming not to make any progress.

15. "On the seventh day." The repeated 15. "On the seventh day." The repeated use of the number seven must not pass unnoticed. "Seven priests," "seven trumpets," "seven days" and "seven times on the seventh day." Seven denotes perfection. God's ways and works are all perfect. One of these seven days must have been a sabbath day. The Jews say it was the last, on which the city was taken; and as they were doing the work of God, for His glory, no objection arises against it from the fourth commandment, any more than against the man carrying his bed on than against the man carrying his bed on the sabbath day in honor of Christ who had healed him. If this be an illustration of the way to spend our sabbaths, then are we not instructed to do on that day are we not instructed to do on that day seven times as much service for the Lord as on other days? "They rose early." Here not only Joshua rises early, as in v. 12, but also the whole army, because a great day's work was before them. Early risers gain many victories that otherwise would have been lost.

16. "When the priests blew." At the exact time when God declared victory. They kept in tune with God. Their expectations were so great, their faith so tirm, their ear so well tuned, that their voices were at once raised to sound the note of triumph when God said shout. note of triumph when God said shout." Shout." They were to shout by faith as though the victory were already gained. This they did and the walls fell only after they had declared it aloud. There is much in the shouts of God's saints. 1. It strikes terror to the hearts of their enemies. 2. It inspires courage in the weak and faltering. Gideon went forth to victory with a shout. It is said that the soldiers of Oliver Cromwell came to feel that there was no defeat for them, and they rushed into battle with a shout that caused the enemy to fiee ter-ror stricken. M Jesus gave His followers a license to shout His praises. Luke 19: 40. Shouting saints seldom become discouraged, But of course there is no virtue in the noise; God looks at the heart and if that noise; God fooks at the heart and if that is pure we are accepted by Him.

17. "The city shall be devoted....to the Lord (R. V.)." The word from which the word "accursed," or "devoted," comes denotes "to cut off, to devote, to withdraw from common use and consecrate to God." This was the first victory in Canaan. It was Israel's first fruits, and as such must be devoted to the Lord. The Canaanites were slain because of their great wickedness. They had become corrupt and their punishment was just. In the last day all the wicked of the earth will fall beneath the anathema of the Judge.

18. "Keep yourselves," etc. See R. V.
"It would be sacrilege to dedicate the whole to Jehovah and then to take posseswhole to Jehovah and then to take possession of a part for their own use."
"Make the camp....accursed" (R. V.). If my one should take for personal use that which had been dedicated to God, it would be the means of bringing a curse upon them, and the camp would be troubled and distressed because of it.

19. "The silver," etc. Everything of take was to be set apart for the service of the tabernacle, and counted among the of the tabernacle, and counted among the sacred things. God would be honored by nriching His dwelling place. His cause is built up by the destruction of the enemy's strongholds. This would teach the Israel ltes not to set their hearts on worldly wealth, and would show the nations around that they were not a set of marauders, seeking for plunder. There was also special danger at this point lest Israel should become contaminated by these heathen nations.

20. "Fell down flat." Several commenta-tors, both Jews and Christians, have suptors, both Jews and Christians, have supposed that the ground under the foundation of the walls opened, and that the walls sunk into the chasm, so that there remained nothing but plain ground for the Israelites to walk over. Probably the wall fell down from its foundations in every part. This miracle put into the hands of Joshua the strongest city in Canaan. It also gave both Israel and Canaan overwhelming proof of the omnipotence of Jehovah and of His alliance with Joshua. with Joshua.

Freaks of Memory.

A smart young cavalry officer was recently exercising his regiment upon the drill ground when the familiar words of command suddenly slipped from his mind and the strenuous effort to recall them was utterly futile. In order to cover his embarrassment he was compelled to retire from command under the plea of illness. The fugitive sentence came to his mind when he reached his rooms. Another interesting example is that of a popular novelist who had nearly finished an important work upon which he was engaged, when a sudden failure of memory deprived him of his plot and necessitated the laying aside of the book for more than a week; then an association of ideas recalled the missing plot and the novel was brought to issue and enjoyed a wide circulation.

Aucestral Marks. After a long, dusty walk to a country town, and a morning spent in poring over ancient records, an enthusiastic genealogist returned with these memoranda concerning his ancestors:

Upon sitting down, there was no ease to my thigh, and the only position in which I could bear my leg was straight out in front of me, while in a reclining position. Realizing the nature of the disease, I began treatment at once, but received ne relief until induced by Mr. J. T. Doster, of Greenville, of the drug firm of Bruce & Doster, to take "Rheumacide." Mr. Doster, whe had been a great sufferer himself, from rheumatism, and had been compelled to use crutches for 6 months, was cured by RHEUMACIDE. I purchased a bottle from them, under the guarantee of Mr. Doster that if 3 bottles did not cure me the money would be refunded. One bottle relieved me, and I have had no touch of rheumatism since that time.

W. A. Palmer, who lived here at the time (1901), was down with a severe attack of rhou-matism, and for six weeks had to be turned in bed on a sheet. After the use of several bottles of RHEUMACIDE, he was pronounced well, by the attending physician, who is great believer in the efficacy of your medicine. Yours truly,
